DOOMSDAY

Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.
Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.

They push the buttons, shadows fall with ease,
thrones of iron built on broken pleas.

I loathe it.

Power's game of fire, loaded dice with steel,
when silence bends to fear, the tyrant's hand reveals.

They'll light the world, they'll watch it flame!
A funeral dressed as a game.

Can't face it, can't face it,
No, we can't face this nuclear game.
Can't face it, can't face it,
No, we can't face this nuclear game.

Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.
Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.

The mighty sit with fingers on the keys,
carving futures out of frailty.

I fear it.

One command away, and ash will fill the skies,
humanity erased, no time to question why.

The empire cracks, the people bleed.
But truth is stronger than greed!

Can't face it, can't face it,
No, we can't face this nuclear game.
Can't face it, can't face it,
No, we can't face this nuclear game.

Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.
Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.

I won't whisper that I love you,
kiss or hug you, no illusions, no delusions.

I'm not bluffing with salvation,
this is not imagination.

Just like tyrants in the chamber,
one wrong word and life's in danger.

Hear this vow, hear this call:
Without resistance, we will fall!

Can't face it, can't face it,
No, we can't face this nuclear game.
Can't face it, can't face it,
No, we can't face this nuclear game.

Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.
Nuclear flame,
falling shame,
doom-doom-doomsday.

Doom-doom-doomsday!

Doom-doom-doomsday!

Doom-doom-doomsday!
