NEVER THE ANSWER

They said control would keep me safe,
but fear won't heal, it only breaks.
A voice that screams, a hand that scars,
leaves a silence colder than the dark.

No law, no love, no spoken word,
can make the violence ever deserved.

Violence ... Is never the answer!
It only burns, it never cures the cancer!
Raise your voice, your truth is free,
you are enough, never let it be.

They said obedience makes me whole,
but pain won't mend a fractured soul.
Bruises fade but the echoes stay,
still I rise. I will not obey!

No law, no role, no parent's word,
can make the violence ever deserved.

Violence ... Is never the answer!
It only burns, it never cures the cancer!

Violence ... Is never the answer!
It only burns, it never cures the cancer!
Stand your ground, the lies will fall,
you are enough, you are it all!

Don't let them tell you you're less than light,
don't let them steal what is yours by right.
The hand that strikes is already weak,
but the voice that rises is what they didn't seek.

Violence ... Is never the answer!
It only burns, it never cures the cancer!
Stand your ground, the weak will fall,
you are enough, you are it all.
Stand your ground, the lies will fall,
you are enough, you are it all!

You are it all!

You are it all!

Never the answer!

Never the answer!

Never cures the cancer!

Stand your ground,
stand your ground,
the weak will fall!

You are enough, you are it all!
